Even Experts Having a Tough Time

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (UP) —

The experts were up against it today at the Miss America contest. They couldn't pick a favorite at this late stage in the judging for the nation's top beauty and talent crown.

At this point in the Miss America judging a year ago you could look down the long ramp at Convention Hall here and feel confident in predicting a winner.

Neva Jane Langley, a native of Florida who carried the flag of Georgia in last year's contest, caught the eyes of judges and spectators early in the elimination and had been pegged as a likely winner even before she was crowned Miss America.

But this year there doesn't seem to be a standout.

The so-called expertstake about Carol Segermark, who is Miss Chicago. Also about Miss Pennsylvania Evelyn Ay and likewise Mrs. Wisconsin, and Miss Oregon and a lot of other misses and near misses.

All of which shimmers down to this: Up to now there are four girls in the running and any one of them — or all — could stub a toe or lose a toe.

Miss Pennsylvania took the honors hands down in a swimming suit on the first night of the judging.

It is estimated that one-third of the world's trade is carried on in jumps afooting.

Bobcats Open With Stamps Tonight

Hope Has Slight Edge in Weight Department

The football season gets underway tonight with the Bobcats opening against a highly regarded team of Yellowjackets from Stamps in Hammer Stadium starting at 8 o'clock.

It's the opening game for both teams and the outcome will give the coaches and fans a fair idea of what to expect the rest of the season. Both teams have new coaches — it will be the first time Lawrence Martin has had complete charge although he has been first assistant here for years. And Stamps' new mentor is a Hope native. Fielding Huddleston.

Hope has some edge in the weight department with a 101-pound average team against 155 for the visitors. In the line the Bobcats have a 12 pound weight advantage but the difference is not so great in the backfield, 152 to 150.

The annual game with Stamps is usually rated a tossup and as in the past, plenty of fierce action is expected.

The referee for the contest will be Archie Cochran, Clet McCutcheon, Ira Lollis, field judge and J. R. Smith, head linesman.

U. S. Crew Rated Over Canadians

By WILL GRIMSLEY

MONTREAL (AP)—Henri Rochon swings a racket with his left hand and Lorne Main swings one with both, but if each had three hands it wouldn't help them much today at the Mount Royal Tennis Club.

They're the Canadians being led to inevitable slaughter by the United States' wrecking crew of Tony Trabert and Vic Seixas in opening singles matches of the American zone Davis Cup final.

Trabert, the new champion of the United States, meets the veteran Rochon at 12:30 p.m. (EST). Immediately afterwards, Seixas, holder of the Wimbledon title, takes on Little Lorne Main, Canada's No. 1 player.

Barring a last minute reprieve by the governor general, it should be quick and painless for the gentlemen of the dominion. The Americans are favored to win in straight sets.

Tomorrow Trabert and Seixas hope to clinch the American zone title in doubles match with Main and young Paul Wiley, leaving Sunday's final two singles assignments to the team's second stringers—southern Bernard Barten of San Angelo, Tex., and Straight Clark of Pasadena Calif.

The Canadians would have to give their approval for a change in the American lineup, but this is normally done as a gesture of good sportsmanship.

Rochon, a spindly-legged French-Canadian who is 29 and who has been playing in these matches since 1946, took Trabert to four sets in the U.S. championships at Forest Hills two years ago but says now he would be lucky to duplicate that feat.

"Tony is much better now," Henri said. "He has more confidence. He serves and hits much stronger."

Rochon himself goes in for a variety of stuff, using slices and chop shots as a mixture with flat drives. But while tricky and a left-hander, he probably will be blown off the court by the Cincinnati youngster's "big game."

Main is a scrappy, 23-year-old retriever who wields a racket like the switch-hitting Mickey Mantle, using both hands for both backhand and forehand shots. He gets extra power but must take an extra step for most strokes.

Seixas, despite his straight-set loss to Trabert in the Forest Hills final, is on top of his game. He should win easily.

The American forces, captained by Lawrence Baker, regard this meeting as a warmup for the challenge round matches against Australia.

Bridges, Chapman and left tackle Layton Coleman, a six-foot junior expect relief from Max Schuebel, a two-year letterman, and Lyvon Cox, a junior squadman.

Guards John Hudson and Keny Paul have had experience on both offense and defense, as has W.C. Treadway.

Navy Seems to Be in Good Grid Shape

By GEORGE BOWEN

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—Two regulars on last year's Navy football team—former fullback Fred Franco from the offensive and erstwhile linebacker Tony Correnti from defense—say their successors are a "better all-around squad."

Both finished their college careers as Navy juniors with a team record of six victories, one tie and two defeats. Franco had used a year's eligibility at Brown and Correnti at St. Louis before becoming middies.

They agree that Coach Eddie Ederlatz seems better off from the viewpoint of material generally.

"This year, there appears to be a substitute ready behind everyone," say Franco and Correnti.

The backfield generally is stronger," predicts Franco whose four touchdowns and rushing gain of 691 yards led the Navy last year.

Joe Gattuso, 175-pounder from Clarksville, N. J., is stepping into Franco's running shoes while continuing his linebacker work of last year.

"It is a brainy runner and should make the grade on offense," believes Franco. "At the halves, Bob Hopworth (Derry, N.H.) and Phil Monahan (Burlington, Cal.) are good runners. John Weaver (Wausau, Wis.) also can run as well as pass at quarterback."

Coach Ederlatz can call for more speed when the situation demands from two sophomore halfbacks, Bob Craig (Altadena, Cal.) and George Thomas (Haverland, Pa.).

As for defense, Correnti simply points out all seven on the front line are letter winners. Six of the seven were first string in 1952 on a line which ranked second nationally in rushing defense.

This includes Steve Eisenbauer (Sheffield, Pa.) who made All-America last year for playing the center of a five-man defensive line.

The principal source of the all-around strength which impresses Franco and Correnti are 13 sophomores who comprise one-third of the squad. Their development as backstops seems to be the key to Navy's success.

Miller May Get PMA Position

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Maurice Miller of Marshall may be the first Republican to be named to a Production and Marketing Administration post in Arkansas.

PMA Committee Chairman W. L. Jameson Jr., of Magnolia, said the vocational agriculture teacher's application for area field representative had been forwarded to Washington and that approval is expected shortly.

Ella Waldek

Tuesday night's wrestling card will pair Ella Waldek, 20, of Cedar Washington, against Carol Cook of Toledo, Ohio. Many fans consider Ella as a dangerous threat to Mildred Burke's crown. The second match of the night will be between Scotty Williams and Karl Krause, Polish battler.

Joe Gattuso, 175-pounder from Clarksville, N. J., is stepping into Franco's running shoes while continuing his linebacker work of last year.

"It is a brainy runner and should make the grade on offense," believes Franco. "At the halves, Bob Hopworth (Derry, N.H.) and Phil Monahan (Burlington, Cal.) are good runners. John Weaver (Wausau, Wis.) also can run as well as pass at quarterback."

Bearden Hands Prescott 32-14 Licking

The Prescott Curly Wolves look a 32-14 drubbing at the hands of Bearden Thursday night in the opening game of the 1953 season.

The score was 20-0 at the end of the first quarter, and 26-0 at half-time. At the end of the third quarter Bearden led 26-7.

Arnold of Bearden scored four touchdowns, one on a 3-yard run, a 50-yard sprint and a final touchdown on a 3-yard carry. Sorrels of Bearden scored a touchdown from 3 yards out, and Sorrels carried the ball for both Bearden conversions.

Jerry Daniel of Prescott skirted right end for 22 yards and the Wolves' first touchdown. Prentice Johnson passed to Hobe for the extra point. The second touchdown came when Johnson passed to Hobe for a 12-yard gain and a touchdown. Daniel converted.

Bearden made 11 first downs to 7 for Prescott. Prescott completed 5 of 17 passes for 72 yards, and three aeriels were intercepted. Bearden passed only twice in the game. Bearden received 75 yards in penalties, while Prescott was assessed 15 yards.

Per acre corn yields in the United States rose from 22.6 bushels in 1893 to 40.6 in 1952 on the average.

Sox Finally Concede Race to Yankees

NEW YORK (AP)—Manager Paul Richards, whose scrappy but out-manned White Sox are 14 games off the pace, finally conceded the American League flag to the New York Yankees today.

Furthermore, the fiery Texan added, the Yankees are a club to beat the Brooklyn Dodgers, the National League's almost certain representative in the World Series, thus becoming the first club in history to win five successive world championships.

"I'm tired of hearing all this hogwash about Brooklyn's great defense attorneys yesterday," he said somewhat heatedly. "Maybe they've got some long ball hitters. But nobody can tell me that the cracker box they've got over there (Stamps) doesn't help them. All you have to do is hit a ball good to win any part of the field and it will go over some fence."

"I'll tell you something. They don't have as much power as the Yankees. If the Yankees played in that band box they'd make Brooklyn's homer record look sick by comparison. Those Yankee right handers would hit those left field seats so hard, they'd be picking up the splinters in Borough Hall."

"Mickey Mantle probably would break Babe Ruth's record if he played steadily at Ebbets' Field. And how many homers do you think Gil McDougald would hit. Forty—conservatively. And how about Hank Bauer?"

Richards' words of praise for the Yankees came as a surprise in view of his critical remarks about Casey Stengel and company all season. But now that the pennant race was practically over, the usually cautious Chicago skipper saw no need to conceal his true feelings.

Motions to Dismiss Suits Considered

PINE BLUFF (AP)—Circuit Judge Henry Smith has set Sept. 17 to hear motions asking dismissal of charges filed against five men in connection with irregularities in State Highway Department operations under former Gov. Sid McMath.

The announcement came following a conference of state and defense attorneys yesterday.

Four of the men, M. F. Methvin, Little Rock; John Brown, Arkadelphia; Conway County Sheriff Marlin Hawkins; and Monroe Treatwell of Morrilton, were indicted by a Pulaski County Grand Jury following investigations by the Highway Audit Commission.

The other man, former highway Commissioner A. D. Mason of Camden, was charged in an indictment filed by Christianity MUST Win! . . . CHRISTIANITY WILL WIN!

"The Whole Armor"

God commands all men to "put on the whole armor, the bullet-proof vest of righteousness, the shield of faith, the helmet of salvation." Every day is a fight against deceitfulness, covetousness, cowardice, profanity, immorality and a multitude of sins which your church does not stand for. Your armor must serve both defensively and offensively and a second line of defense, named morale, is necessary. Cheating means the enemy's missile has wounded your soul. Better put on a little more of God's armor... church-going, prayer and unselfish living. If you expect to win the fight.

Sunday School Lesson

"Stand, Therefore"
By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D. D.

"Stand, therefore." This is Saint Paul's exhortation to the Christians at Ephesus (Ephesians 6) after he had urged them to "put on the whole armor of God," so that they might "withstand in the evil day, and having done all, stand."

That Paul should have seen the Christian life as warfare is not to be wondered at. His whole course was beset with enemies and persecutions.

No man, apparently, was more indomitable in spirit, yet Paul reveals that with all his stoutness of heart he had conflicts within. He speaks of "a messenger of Satan to buffet him" (11 Corinthians 12:7).

He speaks of his weakness, though in this weakness he found strength through depending on God. "My grace is sufficient for thee; for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me."

To the Christians, to whom Paul wrote, life was also a warfare. They may have been free from the most serious persecutions that beset Paul, but they were subject to persecution.

There were hazards in being a Christian. The days, as Paul says, were evil (Ephesians 5:16). The pagan environment was hostile and full of temptations of the flesh and of the spirit.

Paul is insistent upon the Christian warfare, and, like a great military leader, he is deeply concerned about preparation, equipment, indoctrination and rousing words of inspiration and encouragement.

And in all this his own example is never lacking. This is a quality of great leaders. George Washington, fighting in the very forefront with his poorly equipped troops, exemplifies this quality.

What men like Washington have been in material warfare Paul was in the warfare of the spirit, fearless, undaunted no matter what the odds.

Is the Christian life still a warfare today? It is a significant and important question.

Hostile forces and temptations are no less real, though they may seem less evident and more subtle. I think it may be said that we do not think of the Christian life as a warfare as precisely, and as much, as it is set forth in New Testament days.

But I wonder whether this may not be because we lack something of the vision that inspired Paul and the early disciples; that we do not see, as they did, the need of warfare, with the call of duty and the call to greatness.

An eminent English preacher, the late Sylvester Horne, once wrote a little book on "The Life That Is Easy." He described the Christian life.

But Horne himself was a fighter, and he wrote of that life as easy only through mastery, completeness of commitment and the sort of strength that Paul found made perfect in weakness.
